

Application for employment

A CV will not be accepted as part of, or instead of, this application form.

Please attempt to answer all relevant questions as fully as possible.

It is important to read all accompanying job guidelines and consider carefully whether your knowledge, skills and abilities match what we are looking for.

You will be required to demonstrate each aspect by reference to your academic, professional, voluntary or personal life.

We expect all our staff to adopt Impact Arts' Vision & Values and a commitment to Equal Opportunities.

---	-----	----

If your answer is yes; please give details of date(s) of offence(s) and sentence(s) passed:

Convictions which are 'spent' by virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended) need not be disclosed. All posts within impact Arts require a Disclosure check. Recruitment for posts which involve regulated work with children and/or vulnerable adults will be subject to a successful application to the Protecting Vulnerable Groups Scheme. This Disclosure service will not be used by Impact Arts to identify and disqualify all applicants with criminal records; this will depend on the nature and background of the offence(s).

Data Protection

Information given in this application will be held and processed for Impact Arts' recruitment purposes. Applicant personal details are held electronically in locked folders and Impact Arts' recruitment email account. Access to this information is restricted to the recruiting panel, HR and Administrative staff and any person called upon to advise the panel during or in consequence of that recruitment process. (For example lawyers or HR advisors). Paper copies are held in locked filing cabinets.

If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personal file and retained during your employment. The periods for which your data will be held will be provided to you in a new privacy policy.

For those applicants who are unsuccessful, paper application forms will be shredded and electronic copies deleted 6 months after the appointment is made. This is to allow time for unsuccessful candidates to contest the decision made by the interview panel in a legal claim and to receive feedback on their application or interview.

Declaration

I declare that the information contained in this form is true and accurate.
I understand if it is subsequently discovered any statement is false or misleading, my employment may be terminated without notice.
