

Group Member Role Description

Who are the Sketchy Youths?

The Sketchy Youths are Impact Arts' Youth Ambassadors, formed in 2019. The founding members of the group are passionate about the arts, committed and empathetic and are looking for young people with similar values to join them and expand the group.

What qualities are we looking for?

- You must be aged 16 -25 years old
- Able to commit to being involved for at least one year
- Comfortable working via Zoom and email on tasks, discussions & activities
- Committed to attending the monthly meetup and working on individual tasks with a mentor
- Interested in ensuring the voices of young people are heard
- Enthusiastic and willing to share opinions and ideas

What is the role?

The purpose of this role is to act as a representative for Impact Arts. You will share and discuss your ideas, opinions and experiences with other members of the Sketchy Youths and work together as ambassadors for the organisation.

Members will take part in different tasks, activities and discussions such as writing content for social media, being consulted about Impact Arts programmes and meeting with the board. You will be actively involved in developing a listening culture within Impact Arts and being the voice of the young people engaging in Impact Arts' programmes.

If you would like to make a difference and help improve the way that Impact Arts projects are developed and delivered, ensuring that they have people like you at the core of their activities, then this is the role for you.

What's in it for you?

- A chance to meet other young people who are passionate about arts, creativity and community
- The opportunity to take part in and plan activities and events
- Experience of supporting the development of nationwide projects to add to your CV
- A chance to represent the views of young people and your communities
- The opportunity to work towards a Dynamic Youth award
